STANDING COMMITTEE REPORTS

- Athletic Council (Dan Whatley) – Will meet next week
- Calendar Committee (Susan Brooks) – Met on February 5th
  - Committee discussed the loss of one holiday day for this coming Christmas break. It will go from 9 to 8 days off for Christmas break. IHL allows 15 holidays and the university was over the maximum number. An announcement will go out to campus regarding this change.
  - The committee discussed the spring calendar. The committee looked into extending registration days for students. Conflict arose with the necessary contact hours and the committee opted not to extend the dates.
  - The committee also discussed changing faculty advising dates but decided not to. Some departments will start earlier and others will end later.
  - The committee discussed adding a class ring ceremony in both the spring and fall to provide opportunities for all students. The decision is not yet finalized.
  - The reading day for Maymester will now be on a Saturday rather than a weekday.
- Community Engagement Committee (Avent Vanhorn) – Met on February 16th
  - The committee discussed the effort to reclassify ranking in the community engagement portion of the Carnegie Classification. It will be up for reclassification in 2019. The committee is in the process of forming a document including definitions of what community engagement is at Mississippi State University. The committee reviewed several other schools, and they will be working on ways to educate the university on what community engagement is.
  - For the proposal, the committee is asking for recommendations of programs to highlight examples of community engagement and actions to engage the community. There are four categories: general community service, education, economic opportunities and interfaith community service. Some examples from last year include the Mississippi Delta Alternative Spring Break Program, Community Disaster Supply Kits, and Emergency Preparedness Training. If your department is offering programs that may fit within these four categories, please email Avent with a little more about the program and the person for contact.
